About Us

The Weaveologist LLC, was founded in 2000 and has been around for over 14 years with experience in modern hair techniques and makeup artistry. We started in the San Francisco, Bay area, and subsequently traveled between the US and Canada during our humble beginnings. We are now centralized in Houston, TX, but still known globally for superior customer service and professionalism. We serve both domestic and international customers. We are one of the leading on-location hair and makeup companies that specialize in special event glamour, on screen productions and editorials. We understand that using the services of a professional hair and makeup artist is essential to looking and feeling beautiful. We will come to your location and work with you to create a special look for your occasion. We strive to make each experience an exceptional one.

Our Mission

The Weaveologist LLC, is a team of expert professionals and dedicated staff that will strive to provide the highest level of service to each and every client with passion, expert advice and the utmost professionalism and courtesy.

Why Are We Different?

Our hair and makeup artist are licensed, and trained to offer you the highest quality of service. Our staff participates in our continuous learning program, where they attend special training to stay on top of the newest trends in hair and makeup several times a year. We test all of our hair and makeup products before we use them on our clients and, will always be able to give our expert opinion on products and services of interest.

Services We Provide

1. Hair services for men and women for all hair types including but not limited to weaving, extensions, updo's, fantasy hair, cutting, coloring, and styling.
2. Makeup services for men and women, including but not limited tattoo cover-ups, scar covering, evening skin tone, special effect, bridal, natural, and glamour looks.
3. Traditional makeup and air brush options are available.

Booking With Us

Now, that you know a little about us, lets discuss our process.

After our initial meeting and you understand what services we offer and have viewed the work that we've done in the past, you may schedule an appointment. In the appointment we go over your expectations, wish list, and any questions you may have. We will also discuss pricing, go over packages and if necessary we will create a custom package to fit your needs.

Bridal Packages

Your wedding is the most exciting day of your life! Using the services of a professional hair and makeup artist is essential to looking and feeling beautiful. We are a stylish team of on-location artists who offer hair design and makeup artistry. We will come to your location and work with you and your bridal party to create a glamorous look for your special day!

We offer traditional and airbrush makeup. All of our makeup services include complimentary false lashes and a final touch up prior to photos or the wedding ceremony.
